

The American Psychoanalytic Association

is pleased to announce its

1st Annual Undergraduate Prize

$250.00

For an undergraduate paper or essay which engages Psychoanalytic ideas in relation to a focused question in any academic discipline.

The essay should be no more than 15 pages in length and should neither have been published nor submitted for publication. It must have been written in an undergraduate course or under an instructor's supervision within one year of submission. Essays should be submitted by the instructor, with the course name (if applicable), instructor's name, and student's name only mentioned in the cover letter. Only one submission per instructor, please.

Essays are due July 1, 2010

Essays with cover letter should be electronically submitted to:

Dawn Skorczewski, Ph.D.
Co-Chair, Committee on Undergraduate Education
dawnskor@brandeis.edu