

TUITION SUPPORT FOR ACADEMICS

The Committee on Psychoanalysis & the Academy is offering tuition-support for academics to attend psychoanalytic training seminars at APsAA-accredited Institutes. Financial support will be available for Spring 2012 and any academic—either CORST candidates currently enrolled in training or others simply interested in gaining psychoanalytic knowledge for research—is encouraged to apply. These grants will be offered for tuition only (paid directly to your institute).

Submission requirements include:

- a letter of request indicating the relation of seminar attendance to one's academic research
- a statement detailing tuition requirements at the Institute
- a curriculum vitae
- and a letter of support from the APsAA Institute Director or Dean where the seminars will be held.

Applications should be sent in PDF format to Debra Steinke Wardell at APsAA's National Office at dsteinke@apsa.org.

The deadline for submission is December 9, 2011.
